REPRINTED.—The poem published by us Saturday, is reprinted on the first page, as our edition was exhausted, and there are many who wish to possess it.

WE hope to see Academy Hall crowded on Thursday evening next, at which time the St. Albans Brigade Band will give a concert. There is no better band in the State, and we feel confident in saying that those who attend will be happily surprised at the class of music which they will hear. The outside performances of the Band are good; but their indoor music is much superior. Go to the concert on Thursday evening.

HON. A. O. ALDIS, United States Consul at Nice, France, is expected home about the 15th of June. His family are in excellent health and will remain in Nice for the present. When Judge Aldis intends to return to Nice, if at all, we are not informed.

MR. HENRY D. BELDEN, formerly Adjutant of the 9th Vt., and recently a medical student at Burlington, has entered upon the practice of medicine at Montgomery Centre. Says the Richford Sentinel.

BRYAN'S Menagerie and Circus will exhibit at Plattsburgh on Thursday, and at Rouse's Point, on Friday, of this week.

FIVE cars of No. 9, Freight train which left St. Albans this morning at 6 o'clock, were dumped about a mile north of Williston. The passenger train due here about 12 o'clock noon, was on that account delayed four hours. Little or no damage, we learn, was done to either cars or freight.

TIN WEDDING.—Mr. and Mrs. M.G. Elliott celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage with a tin wedding on Saturday evening last. The Brigade Band were out, and it is needless to mention that they gave a suitable serenade on the pleasant occasion. Mr. Elliott is the efficient General Ticket Agent of the Vt. Central, and Vt. and Canada roads.

GOOD WORK.—We were shown today, in the extensive and well filled furniture rooms of Messrs. Livingston & Sons, a small stand, such as used to be a common article of furniture in every house, made by Mr. Horace Livingston fifty years ago the 3rd day of the present month. This stand is in shape like others of its age, but is otherwise an elegant piece of workmanship, being made of handsome maple, inlaid with what is called zebra wood. The stand was made by Mr. L. while he was an apprentice, and shows for itself that it was excellently made. It was bid off by him a short time ago at an auction sale of goods.

MISSION MEETINGS AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.—A series of mission meetings held during the last week at the Catholic Church in this place, will close this evening with a sermon by Father Smarius. So far during the services 1400 persons have received the communion, and the church has been thronged at service hours with people in attendance. On Sunday at the five different hours of service no less than 3,400 people were present—200 at 5 o'clock, a. m.; 700 at 9 a. m.; 700 at 11 a. m.; 900 at 2 p. m.; and 900 at 7 p. m. The collection at morning service Sunday, to defray the expenses of the mission, amounted to the nice sum of $70.

Father Smarius will lecture in the church to-morrow evening on St. Patrick and his children—one half the proceeds to help pay the debts of the church, and one half to aid in paying for an organ for a church in Chicago. This organ will be the largest in the United States, and is to be manufactured in Montreal.

Father Smarius has been attending mission meetings in various places, with only four days intermission, since the 17th of August last. He is an easy and earnest speaker, and receives the close attention of all who hear him.

We learn that Bishop Louis De Goesbriand has held services twice daily in this place during the last week, preaching in French.

NEW CATALOGUE.—The Vermont Central Library Association have just published a new Catalogue of books contained in their library, about 1,500 volumes in all. The Catalogue contains also the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association, with a list of officers as heretofore published by us. Any approved person may secure the privileges of this library by the payment of $2 per year. The library room is in the second story of the Depot building, and is a model of taste and convenience. Mr. Tinker, the President, Mr. Leard, the Treasurer, or Mr. C. A. Grow, the Clerk and Librarian, will do the honors to visitors in a way to make a visit pleasant little event.

THE Windsor County Court commences its May Term at Woodstock to-morrow. Owing to some supposed flaw in the indictment of Miller, the murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Gowling, of Weathersfield, a year ago. The Standard says, the Grand Jury have been called together to remedy the defect. The trial will probably take place the first of the term.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—The Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Portland have called a meeting of the citizens of Portland, Maine, which is to be held on Wednesday of this week, to vote upon the question of the city's subscription for stock in the Portland & Ogdensburg Railroad, at the rate of 25 per cent on the valuation of the city—not exceeding the sum of $750,000. We do not doubt that the necessary subscription will be voted by the Portlanders. All they want to know in that enterprising city is that any contemplated work will be beneficial to them, and when that appears certain, they go ahead beautifully.

Hon. George W. Hendee and Waldo Brigham, Esq., of Hyde Park, have been addressing railroad meetings in Lamoille County, and one or two in this county. Lamoille County is waking up to her interests, that is, the small portion which has not been awake all the time.

EAST BERKSHIRE.—"Max" communicates to the Richford Sentinel the following items concerning affairs in East Berkshire:

Judge Smith has sold his entire property, in this village, consisting of two dwelling houses upon the lower street and a large garden opposite, and about five acres of land on the east side of the river, to Messrs. Paul & Moren, for $2000. It is the intention of the latter gentlemen to put up a store on the corner near the bridge, and opposite the old location of W. S. Rublee & Son's store.

Hon. W. S. Rublee has purchased the building and garden lots, belonging to Dr. C. C. Smith, for $225.

The upper part of J. P. Smith's blacksmith's shop has been fitted up as a shoe-shop and is occupied by Selenie Sentebar.

W. S. Rublee & Son intend to rebuild their store this summer—probably upon the old site.

In putting up new buildings it is intended to place them farther front (that is, upon the lower side of the street), and thereby straighten the street.

The assertion that Mr. Paul is about to retire from the firm of Paul & Moren is incorrect.

VT. DELEGATES AT CHICAGO.—The following were the delegates from Vermont in attendance on the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Chicago:

Gen. Geo. J. Stannard, Maj. L. G. Kingsley, Col. S. E. Pingree, Capt. Fred. E. Smith, Adj't. John C. Stearns, Lieut. Col. W. W. Grout, Serg't. Henry C. Congdon, Private Norman J. Nichols, Lieut. Charles Field, Capt. E. J. Ormsbee, Capt. Edward Dewey, Capt. E. A. Tilden, Capt. John W. Clark, Gen. Wm. Y. W. Ripley, Lieut. Col. H. R. Stoughton, Serg't. Percy R. Downer, Serg't. Warren Gibbs, Capt. Henry O. Wheeler, Lieut. Col. John W. Bennett, Lieut. Geo. H. Bigelow, Serg't. E. H. Barber, Capt. Stephen F. Brown, Capt. S. F. Norton, Capt. W. H. Smith, Lieut. C. B. Wilson, Serg't. O. S. A. Sprague, Capt. C. H. Dickinson, Lieut. Col. Thos. H. Halsey, Private David J. Lyon, Capt. Geo. N. Carpenter, Serg't. Geo. C. Bates, Col. W. F. Nichols, Capt. A. R. Sabine, Private B. H. Upham, Serg't. K. Eastman, Capt. Chas. D. French, Maj. Chas. Moore, Serg't. E. Chamberlain, Serg't. J. W. Bryck, Serg't. L. B. Cross, Serg't. R. H. Whittle.

PAPER WEDDING.—Hon. Harmon Northrop celebrated his golden wedding last fall, which pleasant fact was duly recorded by us, and about two months ago his son, Mr. Wooster Northrop, celebrated his silver wedding. On Saturday last another son, Mr. J. M. Northrop, also of Fairfield, celebrated what is called his paper wedding, he having been married two years. There was a large and pleasant gathering at the house of the last named gentleman, where the guests bestowed various tokens of esteem, all in the paper line, including various specimens of our national currency, and enjoyed the hospitality of the recipients. We are assured the affair was a very pleasant one.

LE PROTECTEUR CANADIEN.—The first number of this weekly French Journal, Rev. Z. Druon editor and proprietor, makes its appearance this evening. The objects of the paper are, as stated in the Prospectus, briefly these: 1st, To preserve a stricter union between all the members of the Canadian family residing in the United States; 2d, to keep and cultivate the use of the French language, which is studied all over the world; 3d to instruct, to please, &c.; 4th, to defend the purely material interests of all the Canadians; 5th to endeavor to make all of those who reside in this Country good citizens; 6th, to promote their spiritual interests.

The editor says St. Albans is chosen as the place of publication because it is near Canada and French papers are received every day; all the mail trains leave in the morning for all parts of the country, so that the Journal will reach its destination without delay; 3d, St. Albans is known all over the world not only on account of the Raid but also on account of the invading Fenians.—The paper is neatly printed and starts off with a fair promise of success.

THE second Anniversary of the Vermont Reform School will take place at Waterbury on Wednesday, June 17th. The Trustees have appointed Albert D. Hager, Esq., of Proctorsville, Hon. Henry A. Bart of Swanton, and Henry Clark of Rutland, a committee to visit the school and make a report of its progress and condition.

In Rutland, according to the Herald, building is going on at a lively rate. In addition to the many private residences going up, the following are noted:

Cramton's new block on Merchants' Row is going up rapidly, and the iron front is already being put up on the first floor. Ripley's building, directly opposite the above, is also in a forward state of progress, and the work on it is being pushed as fast as possible. It will undoubtedly be ready for occupation early in the approaching autumn. W. C. Landon is finishing up his building, corner of Merchants' and West street, and it will be occupied in the course of ten or twelve days by Dr. Lewis, druggist and apothecary, the Rutland Boot and Shoe Company, Bailey & Parker and O. W. Currier.

Work on Richardson's hotel, corner of Centre and Wales streets, is being conducted in a satisfactory manner, and it will be hurried to completion.

The Lamoille Newsteader announces the formation of another post of the Grand Army of the Republic in Vermont, at Morrisville, called "Post No. 4, of the Department of Vermont." The following are the officers, elected by ballot: Commander of Post, C. J. Lewis; Sen. Vice, C. W. Dodge; Jun. Vice, A. A. Niles; Adjutant, A. O. Gates; Quartermaster, Geo. Brown; Surgeon, S. C. Sanborn; Chaplain, George Bridge; Sergeant-Major, John Daniels; Quartermaster-Sergeant, G. Shappe.

Commander Lewis issues an order, asking the members to attend to the duty of decorating the graves of their departed comrades, whose remains lie in the cemetery at Morrisville, at 5 o'clock p. m., on the 30th day of May.

Mr. Foote, from the Howard Mission in New York, is again in Vermont with children from the Mission, seeking homes for them. He visited Rutland on Sunday of this week.

OVER 1,000,000 more of property has been put into the Grand List of Rutland this year than last. The Grand List of the town of Rutland is about $40,000; of the village $18,000.

A fatty tumor, weighing about one and a half pounds, was taken from the back of the shoulder of Mr. John S. Stiles of Springfield, in the afternoon of Tuesday last, May 19th, by Dr. L. M. Tuttle, assisted by Dr. Robinson of Felchville, and Dr. Granville Knight.

THOMAS BAKER, of Barton, owns a farm of 700 acres.

The house, horse barns and woodsheds belonging to Alfred Collins of Craftsbury, were burned on Sunday, May 10th—taking from a chimney. Most of the stuff in the house was saved. Loss $1,800.

DIED. In St. Albans, April 19, at the residence of J. R. Corless, Mrs. Jane Corless, aged 76 years. LATEST NEWS!

FROM WASHINGTON

IMPEACHMENT SPECULATIONS!

Admission of Southern States.

Political Movements in Favor of Chase and Adams!

ANDY AND AMNESTY!!

NEW YORK, May 25.

A special despatch from Washington to the Herald says that the impeachment managers held a meeting Sunday evening, and adopted the points of evidence obtained last week. Butler was commissioned to put the evidence in shape. Mr. Wilson thinks the matter will be dropped on Tuesday. Butler is satisfied that he has an overwhelming amount of evidence to impeach one or two Senators, and make conviction sure. Thad. Stevens is fully convinced that there have been all kinds of frauds perpetrated to defeat conviction. He is preparing an article of impeachment, and taking the subject of bribery for his text.

The World's despatch says that leading Radical Senators urge the discharge of the impeachment subject at once, in order that Congress may attend to legitimate business. Wade denounces the negro suffrage plank in the Republican platform, adopted at Chicago. Mr. Williams stated that he and Stevens will urge the Managers to adopt three new articles, and if they are not adopted by them will appeal to the House. Boutwell and Wilson regard impeachment as dead. It is still believed that Ross will vote for conviction on the second and third articles.

Mr. Pomeroy's friends say that he will ask the Senate to investigate the charges against him.

Grant and Colfax both urge the speedy admission of those States complying with the reconstruction acts, and an effort will be made to get the Arkansas bill up to-day. It is probable that all the States will be admitted before the first day of July.

The Tribune's despatch says that it is understood that the report of the impeachment Managers which will be made to-day will present merely an exhibit of facts as they appear from testimony, and it is given out that this testimony is so strong that it will compel the Senate to suspend action on the trial until time is afforded for an exhaustive investigation. Extreme Radical Senators are in favor of protracting the trial to make further investigations.

NEW YORK, May 25.

A meeting of the friends of Charles Francis Adams, desirous of having him placed on the Democratic ticket for Vice President, by the National Democratic Convention, was held on Saturday night. The meeting, which was fairly attended, was addressed by several gentlemen who were most enthusiastic in their laudations of Mr. Adams.

A meeting of leading Conservative politicians was held at the 5th Avenue Hotel on Saturday night, at which measures were taken to advance the interests of Chief Justice Chase, in connection with the Presidency.

NEW YORK, May 25.

A Pittsburgh despatch says a Nashville paper states that a proclamation of universal amnesty is in course of preparation at the White House, and will be issued before the meeting of the National Democratic Convention. Gold 139½.
